DiscussIT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Explain...

Response: Please make sure all grammar, spelling, indentation, and punctuation is correct.

In my opinion I believe this will create a split on the country, because there is so many people with different opinions and that's okay, but people are expressing their thoughts and opinions in the wrong way and manner.

These issues in human rights, and other matters are coming up now because people are sick of hearing it again and again like when you listen to the same song over and over again from the same artist you get really tired of it think it's annoying and stop listening to it, and that's what is happening here young African-Americans and other people started doing the black life's matter because they were mad of hearing the same story "A police officer killed a young African-American" over and over so they decided to protest against it. Why do you think our current President Donald J. Trump just put a "Muslim Ban" and is planning to build a wall? Because he was tired of hearing attacks on the U.S. like the recent attack on at the club Pulse and the attack that happened recently in Canada, in Paris, he is mad of hearing ISIS taking territory, he is done with all the drugs coming in from Mexico to the U.S. and all the illegal immigrants coming also in from Mexico. This is just like the example I just gave, he is tired of hearing the same song over and over.
